Compellent Vice President of Marketing Bruce Kornfeld to Present at Storage Networking World Spring 2007

Storage Industry Veteran to Describe How a Single Administrator Can Efficiently Manage 1-Petabyte Storage Networks

What: Bruce Kornfeld, vice president of marketing for Compellent, will present "Building Systems that Scale: Imagining the One Petabyte to One Admin Management Ratio" as part of the Storage Management Track on Thursday, April 19 at Storage Networking World Spring 2007.

As data needs grow with their organizations, administrators will look to advances in virtualization, ease of use, automation, resource efficiency and scalability to help overcome the pain points of storage management. In his session, Kornfeld will outline emerging strategies and technologies that can put a single administrator on the path of effectively managing a 1-petabyte storage system.
